Defibrillator Unit

As most people know, we have a defibrillator in Awliscombe. It is situated on the wall of the village hall, to the right of the entrance. There is also one on the wall as you enter Heron Farm in Weston, directly ahead of you.

This comes as a gentle reminder of what to do in an emergency situation.

If someone collapses with a cardiac arrest near you, then speed of response is paramount.

So ring 999 without delay.

If someone was able to fetch the defib unit, instructions will be heard very clearly once the unit is opened.

What's On.

To help everyone keep their diaries up to date, you can now go onto the Awliscombe Parish Council website, click on What's On and see all of the public events for the village. If anyone has an event which they would like advertised on this calendar, then please let Sally know on lawrencesally@hotmail.com

For any people who are new to the area, they should know that new members are always welcome to any of the various clubs and events mentioned in the magazine. Details of people to contact are on the contact page at the beginning of this magazine.

Mothering Sunday Service at St Michael's and All Angels

A huge thank you to everyone who came along to the Mothering Sunday church service on the 30th March! We were lucky to have such beautiful weather, making the morning feel extra special. The service was preceded by a display from the Awliscombe bell ringers starting from 9:00am to welcome churchgoers. After an introduction by church warden Nick Thwaites, the service was led by Revd. Christine, with a reading by Oriana Burford and prayers by Timandra Burford. A special thank you to Revd. Scott for accompanying on the organ, and to the children of Awliscombe Primary School for their wonderful work in decorating the church.

After the service was over, and posies were handed out to all the mothers present, we finished up with a friendly chat over teas, coffees and homemade cakes. Here's hoping everyone had a lovely rest of their Mothering Sunday!

Awliscombe & Weston Village Fete -14 June.

With Summer on our doorstep, it is time to start looking forward to the Awliscombe & Weston Village Fete! The Fete will take place on Saturday 14th June from 1pm, and as usual will be in the garden at the Otter Inn.

There will be all the usual range of stalls, from vintage cars to the teddy tombola and the fabulous raffle with a wide range of hamper prizes (chocolates, smellies and more), as well as an exclusive Land Rover Experience voucher, very kindly donated by the Summers family. For any children coming along, there will also be a bouncy castle, face painting and plenty of games to keep you entertained throughout the afternoon, like the famous Soaker Joker! And of course, there will be tickets on sale for the Duck Race taking place at 3 pm – don't miss out!!

Feeling peckish? The Otter will be open for business as usual, serving their menu of hot food. In the fete itself there will be the cake stand with a delicious selection of homemade treats, and of course no summer fete would be complete without a proper Devon cream tea! The cream tea stand will be selling tea and coffee and scones with cream and jam for when you need to take a break from all the activity and just relax.

Looking to do some shopping? Drop by the magnificent plant stall to get that perfect new addition for your garden. Peruse the book stall, this year stocked with an amazing collection of art books as well all the options you need to find your next summer read. Or head on over to the bric-a-brac stall; you never know what treasure you might find there after a little browsing!

The winners of the village scarecrow competition will be announced at the Fete, as will the winners of the school Art competition.

Do come along for a fun afternoon. Sunshine (almost) guaranteed!

The Friends of St. Michael's are still waiting for the final agreement about the planning permission for the new loo. It should be here very soon and work will start as soon as it has all been agreed.

The next event outside services at St. Michael's will be the Cream Tea on Sunday 7th September at 2.00. Hopefully we will be able to relax in the sunny church yard again, but it will be held indoors if it rains. This is a really enjoyable, relaxing afternoon.

Fish and Chips in the Church

On a bright spring evening in early April, St Michael and All Angels was transformed. Tables were arranged in the south transept, adorned with tea lights, and a bar was set up to serve alcoholic and soft drinks. The event? A community dinner of fish and chips delivered fresh from Honiton's Chippee!

Organised by the Friends of St Michael's committee, the evening was a wonderful chance for people to get together and enjoy a delicious meal at the very heart of the village, demonstrating that St Michael's isn't just for Sunday services. With 21 people attending, the event raised £135.73 for the church, contributing towards all sorts of exciting projects and renovations in the future: top of the list, of course, the imminent composting loo project.

A big thank you to the FoSM committee, especially Simon and Sarah Ricketts who collected the fish and chips in their hot water bottle-powered cold box. Meanwhile, music was provided by the Three Buskerteers (Rick Empson, Martin Potts and John Edwards) – our own Fishermen's Friends – whose folky repertoire made the evening even more special.

If you're not yet a Friend of St Michael's, do consider joining, to help make the most of our lovely church building as we seek to preserve and enhance it for community and school use. For further details, please contact Kath Empson, the committee's secretary (stmichaelfriends@gmail.com) or any other member of the committee.

Open Mic Night At The Awli

One of the great things about living in East Devon is the sheer quantity and quality of musical talent, from the brilliant Awliscombe Primary School Choir who performed at our Christmas Fair, to all of the local groups and bands, like the Three Buskerteers who entertained us during the recent Fish & Chip Supper at St Michael's as well as Over The Hill and many more just enjoying making music in their homes.

It was great to see The Awli in its beautiful new guise taking on the challenge of restoring the Awliscombe Open Mic Night following the sad closure of the Honiton Inn which hosted this event for so many years under the guidance of Terry Stacey. Many thanks Terry and other performers and friends who supported us in pulling the evening together.

We were treated to a range of musical styles all showing incredible talent and providing a wonderful entertaining evening, proving that music remains a true democratizer for everyone to enjoy and express themselves. From acoustic guitars to full singing groups we heard many fantastic covers and even some original songs too.

Our thanks goes to all our wonderful performers who put themselves out there for our entertainment. Also to everyone who came and listened, we hope you enjoyed it as much as we did!

The great news is.....

We are going to do it again!!!

And this time we would like some more people to perform. The second Open Mike Session at The Awli will be on Saturday 5th July from 19:30 onwards. If you want to get in touch to discuss your performance needs call Helen & Stephen at Studio Wolf 07739 423 047

Thank you to Helen and Stephen for taking on the organisation of these Open Mic Nights. It really was a fabulous evening.

In addition to the bar, there was a pizza van out in the car park. It was 'Flame Cave' pizzas and they were delicious! People were able to bring their pizzas inside to enjoy with the music.

We will have a bar and the same pizza van again on the 5th July at the next Open Mic night.

Disco Night in the village hall.

What a night! Mike Dent Ace Disco's second 70s and 80s disco on 12th April was a spectacular success, with an incredible £772 raised for Friends of St Michael's. The dance floor was alive with energy, as everyone grooved to fantastic music and enjoyed a fabulous evening. And what better way to wrap up a brilliant disco than by kicking our legs to New York, New York!

A huge thank you to Belle Harvey for providing the retro disco equipment and to Jane and Martin for keeping spirits high at the bar.

Village Hall News.

There has been positive feedback from the many groups who rent the hall regularly following the refurbishment. The improved bar area is just about complete as well. Huge thanks to Simon and Kevin for their continued efforts. The occasional 'Awli nights' are proving popular. There will be an Open Mic Night on the 5th July with a bar and 'Flame Cave' pizzas on sale in the car park.

On Saturday 13th September there will be another Awli night, screening The Last Night of the Proms from The Royal Albert Hall. Patriotic outfits and flags are welcome. The Proms finale starts at about 9.00. It usually begins with well-known sea shanties, followed by Rule Britannia, Land of Hope and Glory and ending with Jerusalem. It promises to be a rousing evening.

Anyone who wishes to organise pub nights or a film screening event should get in touch with a member of the village hall committee.

The decision has been made to hold a New Year's Eve event. Watch this space!!

U3a news.

Members of Honiton u3a continue to meet every month at The Beehive, to enjoy an interesting and varied series of talks.

On June 18th, the group will be welcoming a speaker from Children's Hospice South West to talk about their vital work. This important local charity cares for children with life-threatening conditions, and cares for and supports them and their families for as long as is needed. The charity has recently re-opened its charity shop on Honiton High Street following a three-month refurbishment.

And on July 16th, Mark Taylor Hutchinson will be giving a talk on shark and wildlife photography. Mark is a Sidmouth-based wildlife photographer, with a background in dive photo-journalism and a passion for sharks. He is also a wildlife artist.

Following a summer break, September 17th sees Stephen Powles give a talk entitled "Otters: Coming to a River Near You". Stephen's talk will cover, he says, their "design features" and their behaviour, amongst other things.

As well as the monthly talks, Honiton u3a offers 40 different Interest Groups covering a very broad range of subjects, from History, Languages and Nature Appreciation, to Walking, Writing and Wine Tasting. There are book groups and a chance to learn and practise a wide variety of craft skills.

The History Group meets on the fourth Thursday of each month at Awliscombe Village Hall. Subjects in the rest of 2025 include The Colonisation of Australia, The Mughal Empire, The Influence of the Railways 1825-1939 and King John. Meetings are open to members only.

Research shows that groups like u3a provide friendship and the sharing of experiences which improve wellbeing, and help older people to live a more fulfilled third age. Honiton u3a encourages its members to develop and share their interests, to try something new and to socialise with like-minded people.

Doors open for all talks at The Beehive at 1.30 p.m. with the talk starting at 2 p.m. Visitors are welcome in return for a donation of £2.

To find out more about Honiton u3a, and how to join, go to their website: honiton.u3asite.uk

I am sure it hasn't escaped your notice that this year marks 80 years since the end of World War II and various events to mark this anniversary have been taking place.

The Children at Awliscombe Primary have been told all about the reason for these commemorations. They were invited to mark VE day by coming to school wearing red, white and blue. At midday they all headed outside for a lunch in the style of the street parties held at the time, complete with bunting. The staff were suitably decked out as well!

Further up the valley, The Mini Farm marked the day with Woolton Pies, apparently recipe number 151 from a world war II recipe book. These are small pies, about the size of a Christmas mince pie, filled with finely chopped vegetables. They were delicious! I wonder what will be on sale on V.J. day? (15th August)

Later on, at 8.00 pm we were treated to a peal of bell ringing from the church. After raising the bells, the Awliscombe team rang a Devon Peal, ending the day with some beautiful music that carried all the way to Gittisham!

I was invited to go up and watch the peals being rung out. It was quite something to see. There is much more to this skill than I realised.

The bells are heavy, so a half hour peal is quite a work out. Quite how they changed the order of the bells is a mystery but I do know that it has something to do with the numbers of the bells, indicated on the mats on the floor. The caller called these out in different orders and the ringers somehow altered their timing.

Roger, the Bell Captain, here on the right, can explain it all to anyone who is interested. His number is on the contact page.

Thank you bell ringers.

With a mix of excitement and sadness, the 15 leavers will soon take their next steps, leaving Awliscombe School behind and moving on to new schools. We asked them a couple of questions and they have agreed to share their answers with us. We send them GOOD LUCK and very best wishes to them all.

Q1: What special thing has Awliscombe taught you to take to your next school and into life?

Archie: It has taught me confidence and that what you give out comes back to you.

Esmae: I will take PARCH, the school values, with me.  Awliscombe has been a really supportive and safe space for us to learn. I have enjoyed the organisation and fun involved in the events we do, like May Day.

Noah: Awliscombe is a small school and this had helped me to have opportunities to go to events and experience new things, like Exmoor Challenge and Youth Speak, that I may not have had anywhere else. I will take the values of PARCH into my new school.

Seth: I will take the PE into life.

Kayleigh: I have been given lots of opportunities and I will remember not to take things for granted.

Zach: I am grateful for being able to play football on the field.

Arthur: I have learnt to always reflect on the week. Being in Awliscombe has helped me to recognise how to adapt my behaviours to fit in with others but without feeling like I need to change who I am.

Anna: Awliscombe has taught me to listen to others' opinions and not only my own. I think being in a smaller school helps me to be able to communicate well with others and to understand the importance of other people's opinions.

Finlay: It has taught me to show perseverance in what I do.

Jimmie: Awliscombe has taught me to be myself and not change for others. It has taught me to get along with others. Acceptance is a key value I have learnt.

Leo D: It has taught me the PARCH values and that most problems can be solved with a smile and positive attitude.

Leo L: Awliscombe has taught me to treat others how I want to be treated. It has really helped me to find ways to deal with my emotions; it has also made me feel valued. I try to make someone laugh every day.

Lily: The most important thing I have learnt from my time at Awliscombe is to be caring. Thinking of others makes me feel happy. I hope that in my life I will always be kind and people will be kind to me. Awliscombe also taught me to never give up, especially in maths.

Samuel: It has taught me the values of PARCH; perseverance is the most important for me personally because it helps with the other values and teaches us to keep going even if you're finding things hard.

Adam: Primary school has helped me become more resilient in difficult situations. I have enjoyed some of the new experiences we have tried like swimming and the visit to Stonehenge.

 PARCH refers to Perseverance, Acceptance, Respect, Care and Honesty.

Q2: What will you miss the most?

Seth: I will miss all the friends I made.

Archie: I'll miss the wonderful kindness all around me.

Esmae: I will miss the support of the teachers and all the people around me.

Noah: I will miss my friends (others are going to different schools).

Kayleigh: I will miss my teachers and their style of teaching.

Zach: I'll miss the wild area and reading class book together.

Arthur: I will miss having smaller classes.

Anna: I'll miss having lots of support from everyone from year 1 to year 6.

Finlay: I am going to miss the teachers and TAs.

Jimmie: I will miss everyone, from the teachers to the students.

Leo D: I am going to miss the routine.

Leo L: I will miss the school in itself.

Lily: I will miss the teachers the most.

Samuel: I will miss the friends I have made the most. I hope that I will make lots of new friends at my new school and keep my friends here too.

Maypole Dancing.

Having never been taught about the intricacies of Maypole Dancing myself, I do find it incredible to watch. On a bright sunny May morning, under the watchful eyes of the May Queen and King and many family members, the children of the primary school dazzled us all with a fabulous display.

From the youngest to the eldest, they all took it in turns to perform ever more complex dances weaving in and out and creating patterns with the ribbons which they then managed to unweave with no mishaps. Most impressive!

Summer Recorded

We have a tape recorder that plays slower than it should, gives back the notes of a piano lingering honeyed on the air,
guitars as musky fruit from an enchanted wood,
and flutes as tremulous sad maidens bright with golden hair;
each sounded moment lasts a fraction longer than the beat of seconds spun out by the clock's unwavering steel.

I have known days like that, of warm winds drowsing in the heat of noon and all of summer spinning slowly on its reel, days briefly lived, that leave long music in the mind
more sweet than truth; I play them and rewind.

Russel Hoban

The Way Through the Woods

They shut the road through the woods
Seventy years ago.
Weather and rain have undone it again,
And now you would never know
There was once a road through the woods
Before they planted the trees.

It is underneath the coppice and heath,
And the thin anemones.
Only the keeper sees
That, where the ring-dove broods
And the badgers roll at ease,
There was once a road through the woods.

Yet, if you enter the woods
Of a summer evening late,
When the night-air cools on the trout-ringed pools
Where the otter whistles his mate,
(They fear not men in the woods,
Because they see so few)
You will hear the beat of a horse's feet
And the swish of a skirt in the dew,
Steadily cantering through
The misty solitudes,
As though they perfectly knew
The old lost road through the woods....
But there is no road through the woods.
