20/20 Planning and Licensing applications
-It was noted that the application for 22 Bounty Street has been withdrawn.
-The email from the resident commenting on the change of use of the Tattoo parlour on Newport road, to a sandwich shop was discussed. It was felt that the implications of the parking issue were most relevant. Alan said that we need to find out if we can object to this proposal as its only a change of usage and not a planning application. We would object because of the closeness to the zebra crossing. Germaine to follow up.
