106/21	Ward Matters: John Best attended the meeting and gave a talk on the Community Boat. This will be used for a multitude of events and to promote waterways, especially the Bedford/Milton Keynes link. A fully electric, wheelchair access narrow boat is being built. The target is to have it fully functional by 1st March 2021 and to bring activities to all

	Canal parishes in MK. For this they are hoping to build landing points in all Canal parishes. The PC resolved to donate £500, and asked to be kept abreast of the development of the boat. For further information regarding this go to www.bmkwaterway.org. Pavement Parking – The PC discussed the 42-question survey. It was resolved to tick box 3 and highlight exceptions to rules. GN to carry out. Christmas lights – The quote was very high this year and we are still waiting for the lampposts to be strengthened. Everything has been delayed because of Covid-19. However, the PC did agree to promote 'Light up your windows' with a prize for the best. This is being run by New Bradwell Advent Windows on FB. Swann Credit Union – the PC rejected promoting this.
