

Urlingford
Community Centre

Mission statement

Our mission is to empower and connect our community by facilitating the provision of accessible, inclusive, and culturally diverse programs and activities that support education, health, social well-being and the sustainability of our community

The refurbishment of the Urlingford Community Centre, has significantly upgraded and enhanced its internal facilities, and transformed the energy efficiency of the complex while preserving its historic character. Fully compliant with modern health, safety and fire regulations, the Centre is now fit for purpose and will provide a welcoming space for a wide range of activities that will serve local needs, promote participation, and support social, educational, and cultural development.
