Have you nominated your local Neighbourhood Watch Coordinator for an award?

Hello Claire

Wow what an amazing week we had for Neighbourhood Watch Week! Our team visited many areas including West Yorkshire and Bedfordshire. We were delighted to see so many dedicated and active coordinators, doing great things in their communities.

We have just over three more weeks until our nominations close for this years Volunteer Recognition Awards. Remember to nominate Neighbourhood Watch volunteers.

If you know of a Coordinator that you feel deserves recognition for what they do, then please nominate, using our simple to use online form.

Have a look at one of the winners from last years awards.

Community health and wellbeing - Lyn Doll

Lyn is a Coordinator in Humberside.

Lyn's nomination: Lyn is there for everyone in her street and beyond. If you cross paths with her she welcomes you into the street community. She helps those who are ill -practically with lifts to and from the hospital and ensures they have other practical support. No -one is lonely due to Lyn who arranges community meals out. She actively puts on charity event at her home for Macmillian and other charities. All of the local community have knowledge of what is happening locally and we all benefitted from the police home security items.

We are all blessed to have her, every community needs a Lyn.

If you feel that one of your Coordinators should be considered for an award, don't delay, nominate today!

Nominations are made online www.ourwatch.org.uk/volunteerawards

We look forward to reading your nominations.

Best wishes

Cheryl
