15	To confirm the date of next meeting: 1 st July 2024

I cannot believe that I am writing this article during the last week of the summer term. This half term has been incredibly busy but what a whole lot of fun the children have had, as well as learning too!

The children in Star Class went on their first school trip to Lackfield Lakes as part of their topic 'Living and Growing'. On the trip the children had the chance to be minibeast detectives, go pond dipping and use their senses to explore the world around them. It was a little wet but the children had a great time.

Galaxy Class (Year 1) had a fabulous day at the seaside spending time on the beach, identifying different human and physical seaside features and visiting Landguard view point where they were able to see Felixstowe Port.

In Planet Class (Year 2), the children went to Thurston for a Key Stage 1 Sports Festival. Everyone showed incredible sportsmanship and tried very hard with each activity. They all represented the school very well. The children have also been enjoying their learning about Australia, particularly looking at Aboriginal Art.

As part of their topic 'Commotion in the Ocean' Comet Class (Year 3) had a wonderful trip to Great Yarmouth Sealife Centre. They have also enjoyed learning how to play the samba drums in music and picked the perfect day for a parade in the playground. Rocket Class (Year 4) have been enjoying their science topic this term on 'Living Things' especially the lesson which involved exploring the local area as well as going pond dipping. For Meteor Class (Year 5) it has been a very busy few weeks. They have performed at a musical festival, had the opportunity to be part of Bikeability, had a Buddhist Visitor come to talk to them about Buddhism as well as an adventurous day at Thorpe Woodlands where many children challenged and pushed themselves out of their comfort zones.

In Supernova Class (Year 6) the children had a brilliant afternoon at Crucial Crew. They learnt many life skills including how to manage our worries; discussing bullying and friendships; a practical lesson on life saving CPR; safety workshops with the Police and Fire Brigade; investigating how much sugar is in our food & drinks and an informative workshop about drugs and alcohol.

On Monday 1 July, Key Stage 2 attended the Eucharist Service at St Andrews Church. The service involved a celebration of hymns and communion as well as blessings for the children. It was lovely to see the church packed with children and families.

Year 5 and 6 had a wonderful time at Bury St Edmunds Cathedral on Monday 17 June for the Diocese Church School Service. All the children were behaved impeccably and were a real credit to our school, with Holly and Monty delivering the reading during the service. The theme of the service was Hope and Aspiration and the Dean warmly greeted us along with other local schools.

On Friday all classes had a fantastic PE Enrichment session playing Ultimate Frisbee! The children all enjoyed learning new skills and participated in Frisbee team games.

The Key Stage 2 Performance 'Cinderella' was a huge success. The children sang enthusiastically and Year 6 made the perfect cast. The production was written by Mr Mabbitt and the lyrics of Abba songs were changed to suit the storyline. I appreciate I may be a little biased so we did ask for feedback from our wonderful audience. Here are a few comments:

Another absolute showstopper. Amazing! West End Quality. Well done to all the Year 6's and all the Key Stage 2 children and staff. A Brilliant Script.

Really great Show. The children looked so happy on stage and the music and script were funny and engaging.

And so we say goodbye to our Year 6 children. They have been a wonderful cohort, who have worked hard and supported each other so well. They have had to endure many changes and challenges during their primary schooling which they have embraced with resilience, commitment, compassion and humour. They leave Norton with strong foundations ready for secondary school and we wish them the very best.

Mrs Sparkes (Headteacher)

DOWN OUR STREET

This month I thought I would look at the Fiske Family who at one time owned the manor of 'Hardings' and swathes of land around Church Lane, Saunder's Lane and to the east of Norton Hall. They were farmers in the village and left money in their wills to help poor parishioners.

Many Fisk, Ffiske and Fiske families can trace their lineage to around 1200 in Eastern England, and there are several theories for the ancient origin of the names. One theory suggests that in all probability the Fisk and Fiske names originated in Scandinavia. The name Fisk means fish in Norwegian, Swedish, and Frisian. Others suggest the name Fisk had to do with tax collection, so they may have been tax collectors. Yet another theory maintains the name could have come from a place connected with fishing.

The name Harding(s) comes from John Harding, husband of Agnes of Norton, who owned the land. When they married her lands became his until he died and they became her property again.

The earliest known Fiske record is of Symond Fiske, Lord of the Manor of Stadhaugh, in Laxfield in the reign of Henry IV to VI (1399- 1422). He bore for his arms, chequy, argent and gules, upon a pale, sable, three mullets pierced, or.

'Chequy argent and gules' means red and white squares as a checkerboard.

'Pale sable' means a vertical black stripe down the middle of the shield and denotes strength.

'Mullets pierced or' are gold stars with straight sides and a small hole in the middle.)

Motto: Macte Virtute Sic Itur Ad Astra Motto Translation: So to the stars we go.

Fiske coat of arms.

In 1955 Captain A. Hammond of Mousehold House, Norwich, deposited over 150 Fiske (Norton and Elmswell) deeds at the Ipswich Records Office. Here is a selection of a few pertinent records:-

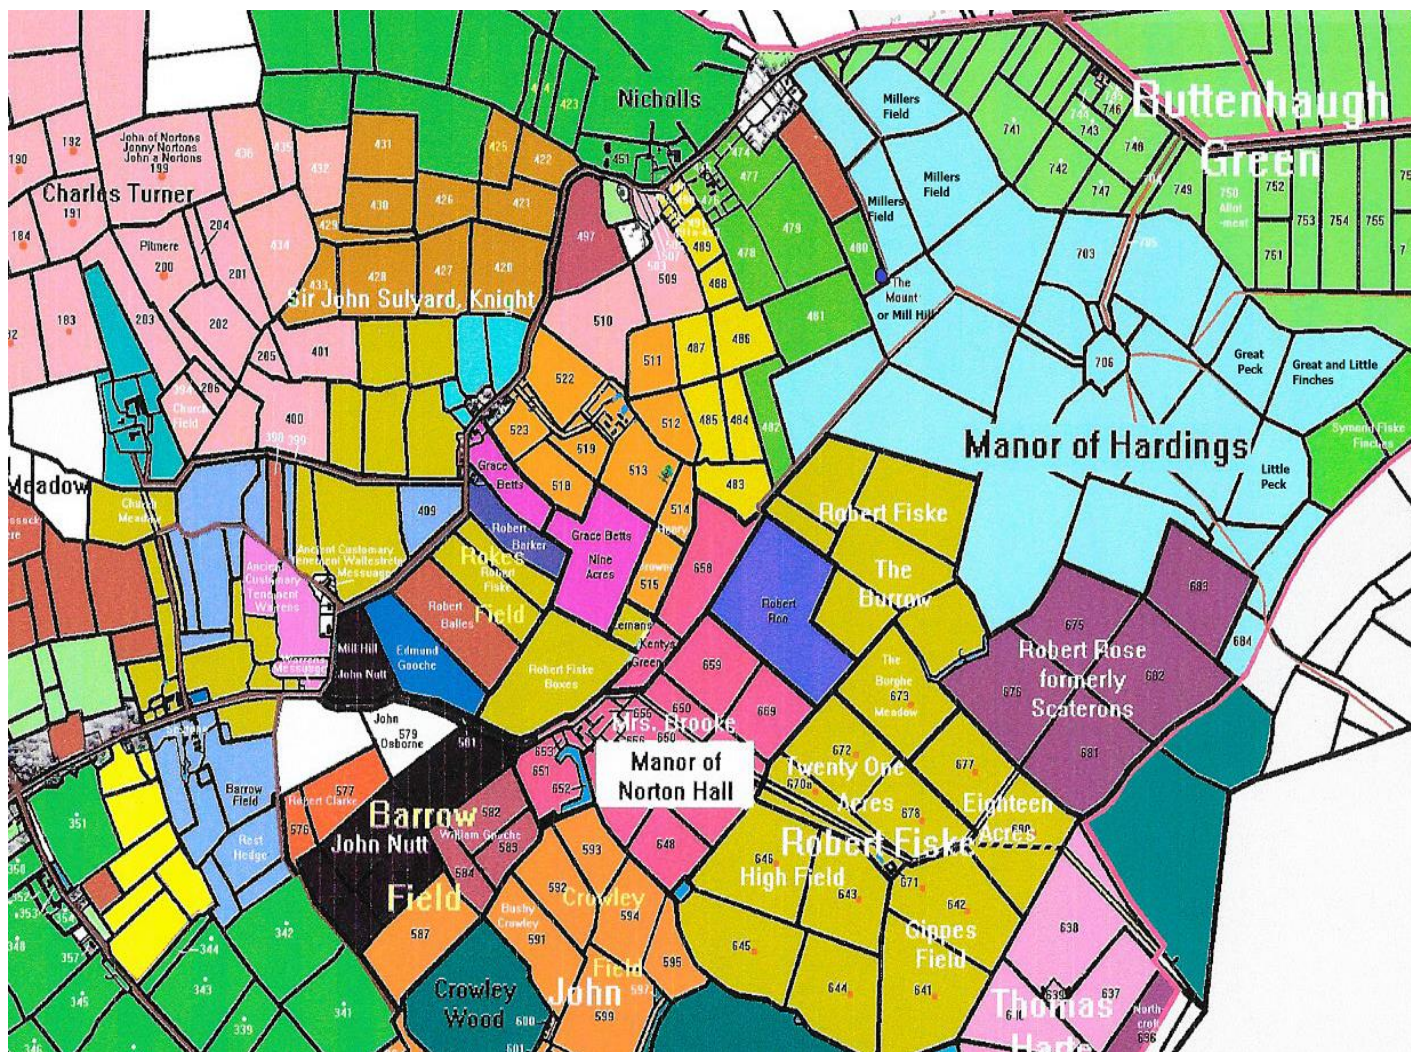

The earliest document referring to the Manor of Hardings is from 1413 and they continue to 1734. It was owned by Edward Bardekell in 1542, William Brooke in 1578 and by John Fiske circa 1648.

1568. Mortgage by Grant from Edward Brooke of Hunston, of a close called Grete Peck, with parcel of Littel Peck of 22 acres, Wronge Close of 28 acres, a close of 30 acres, and 18 acres parcel of Milhill Close, all parcel of the manor of Hardings in Norton. This document is particularly interesting in that it mentions Great and Little Peck (Peake) as well as Milhill.

1578. Grant from Symonde Fyske of Elmswell, Yeoman, and Robert Fyske of Norton, Yeoman.

1623. Grant from William Fyske of Norton, Gent., to John Fyske his son and heir apparent, Samuel his youngest son, Martha, Margaret and Mary Fyske his daughters, of the manor or capital messuage called Hardings and appurtenances, late of John father of William, a messuage called Finches and 7 acres of pasture in Norton. (Mid-green on map to the east and west of Hardings).

The Pecks, Finches and Milhill names have survived as field names and can be found on the 1841 Tithe Map. Mill Hill was a small area surrounded by a moat and is now called 'The Mount' on modern maps.

The map above is a reconstructed map produced by current members of the Fiske family. It is part of a 'whole village map' showing the known land owners in 1575.

Hardings Manor is shown in light blue. Land owned by Robert Fiske is mustard yellow. Mill Hill or The Mount is the dark blue dot to the west side of Hardings. Symond Fiske's land is mid-green and to the east and west sides of Hardings. (Nicholls was the old name for Hill/Manor Farm. Church and Glebe is cyan blue).

Sadly, Hardings Farm was demolished when a large pig unit was built across the site. It had been one of the boundary farms of Battenhaugh Green. When enclosure of open spaces took place in 1812, surveyors roads were built across the Green that is why they are straight. Hardings Lane was one such road and forms part of the boundary between Norton, Hunston and Great Ashfield.

Robert Fiske was a well to do farmer and land owner who lived in Norton. He died aged 84 in 1704 and is buried at St Andrew's.

William Fiske, 'benefactor to the poor', spent the early part of his life in Norton, although in 1630 he was living with his daughter Martha and her husband Henry Bright at Newe House, Pakenham. (Netherhall in Pakenham was the home of Sir Robert Bright, Henry's father). William commenced a weekly gift of a dozen '1d loaves' of bread to the poor of the village and directed in his will that this should continue 'to the worlds end'. He directed that two pieces of land be conveyed to the feoffees to provide the income and the bread should be distributed as the minister and churchwardens saw fit. This gift has now been incorporated into the 'Norton United Charity' which still helps Norton residents who are in need, hardship or distress.

There are a number of Fiske family gravestones near the church porch and a floor slab in the nave isle bearing the name of William Fiske (died 1678).

The 1875 map above, is a section from one drawn of Bach/Beach Farm. (Gravestones at St Andrew's show the name as Bach.) It covers the area of Ashfield Road from Church Lane to The Common. It shows the two farm houses owned by John Fiske. The one on the right, near the sharp bend was occupied by my 4 x Gt Grandfather George Burt at the time of the great fire of 1788. All buildings on the north side of Ashfield Road between Church Lane and The Common were destroyed. George moved to Fiske Farm (extreme left of map) which is pictured as Photo 2. This became our family home for the next 220 years. My grandfather was born there and eventually purchased it from the Fiske family. I lived there from March 1971 to Dec 1982.

We really hope that the sun is now out, and everyone is either having or looking forward to their holidays, family times and all of the summer events we love to enjoy.

At Norton Baptist Church we look back over the past twelve months and say a great big "Thank you" to God for all the things we have been able to do this year. We have loved meeting and chatting to so many of you and we look forward to what will be taking place next year.

We will be around all summer but with a reduced program while so many are away. Our services during August will start at 10:30am but join us from 10am for a coffee if you wish. Each Sunday service will be around 45mins and we will cater for all ages so it would be great To see you if you are around.

HOLIDAY CLUB will be back from the 27th – 30th August. Book in now and join us for all the fun and activities we have planned.

If you need any more information, please email us and we will get back to you as soon as we can.
