DAWN CHORUS BIRDWATCH

Living in Norton we are very fortunate to have some wonderful wildlife habitat right on our doorstep – one very special place for me are the water meadows along the Black Bourn river. On Saturday the 4th of May I'll be heading into the meadows to enjoy the sounds of bird song in full flow and wondered if anyone would like to join me? With a bit of luck, we will hear and see some of the amazing summer migrants like the Cuckoo, Turtle doves, Reed warblers, and my favourite, the Nightingale. It really doesn't matter if you don't know your Robin from your Raven, but if you fancy an early morning nature walk please let me know. I'll be leaving from the war memorial at 0630 on Saturday the 4th May – it will take about an hour and a half. There is no charge but donations to St Andrew's church would be most welcome! Please drop me an email at richardtrollope@live.co.uk if you would like to join me.

Richard

I am writing this article with only two weeks to go before we break up for Easter. Spring 2 has been short and busy as the children have been enjoying their learning and experiencing a range of enrichment activities.

We celebrated World Book Day on Thursday 7 March, with this year's theme being HEROES. Staff and children dressed up as their hero, whether that was a favourite character in a book, someone they admired from the world of music, sport, TV or film, or someone in their life who they respected and who inspired them. Hero costumes ranged from Indian Jones to Harry Potter to Dorothy and many more interesting characters. The children then experienced a range of literary activities during the day, but my favourite one was when the older children met with the younger ones in the school and shared books together. It was so lovely see our Christian Value of community being shown in such a great way.

On Wednesday 14 February, Comet Class (Year 3) went to Cambridge to visit both the Egyptian Gallery at the Fitzwilliam Museum and Central Mosque. The children spent the morning at the museum, looking at how to decipher an Ancient Egyptian object and thinking about what the artefact could tell them of what life was like for ancient Egyptian people. After lunch the class travelled across the city to Central Mosque, where the children had the opportunity to learn about Islamic prayer, ask questions and have a guided tour of the mosque. Everyone enjoyed the day and it was great to hear the children sharing knowledge and applying facts and information.

On Thursday 15 February Planet Class (Year 2) had their first class trip to Lodge Farm. The children learnt about different grains and how they are used, how they are planted and cared for. They all saw tractors and were even able to sit inside them! They had a tractor trailer ride and went on a green treasure hunt!

Rocket Class (Year 4) went to Colchester Castle as part of their Romans topic. They looked around the fascinating museum, had a tour underneath the castle (whilst learning about Boudicca's attack on Colchester) and built a Roman villa and round house.

In the classrooms, Star Class (EYFS) have been busy writing and delivering letters as part of their Jolly Postman topic as well as enjoying the new clamber stack. Galaxy Class (Year 1) have been learning about the Arctic and a trip planned to Scott Polar Research Institute in Cambridge will embed their knowledge further. In Year 2, the children have been learning about the Great Fire of London, with all the children able to say why the fire spread so quickly. To develop their knowledge and understanding, History Off The Page will be visiting the class during the last week when, through role-play, the children will experience life as it would have been at the time of the Great Fire of London. They will use authentic tools and materials to learn skills as apprentices in a variety of workshops. Year 3, in their 3D Art topic have been experimenting with quilling. The children have learnt how to make some of the simple shapes and put them together to create some designs. Year 4 in science are learning about sound- this includes learning how we hear and deafness. As part of this topic, the children will be taking part in a Fingerspellathon to raise money for the National Deaf Children's Society. During the fundraiser, they will learn about deafness, the impact the charity has on deaf children and their families, as well as learning some sign language. Year 5 have been inputting data in computing, using the search tool to find, sort and group information; they have also learnt how to filter information. In Year 6, as historians, the children have travelled back in time to the early mediaeval period, discovering how absolute power in England was fiercely contested by the Anglo-Saxons and the Danish Vikings. They have learnt how Viking raiders and traders became settlers and conquerors, and how the nation of England was born out of the 7 Anglo-Saxon kingdoms.

As we approach Easter, the children are getting ready to celebrate with an Easter Service at St Andrew's Church as well as FAPONS organising an Easter Bingo Event.

ELMSWELL HISTORY GROUP

Our February meeting was delighted to welcome local experienced craftsman Rick Lewis of Traditional Oak Carpentry Ltd and hear his excellent talk on Medieval Carpentry. Starting by selecting the appropriate tree from somewhere like Bradfield Woods (formerly owned by Bury Abbey and from where wood has been sourced for over 400 years!), Rick described in detail how this craft has evolved over the centuries, and he brought along a varied selection of his historic hand tools and implements for everyone to view and handle. Sourcing some superb ancient manuscripts, illustrations and old photographs, he showed how things were done then (with not much visible “safety” gear except some workers were shown wearing clogs). To cut the logs in the Middle Ages, very long two-ended saws were used on trestles with a man standing on top (the “top dog”), while one stood underneath (the “under dog” who was paid less, even though all the sawdust would fall on him!).

Much of Rick’s carpentry work is in private houses, but some can be seen in National Trust properties such as Paycocke’s House in Coggleshall (CO6 1NS) which is a Tudor cloth merchant’s house with elaborate panelling and woodcarving originating around 1420.

Still available although originally published in 1677, Joseph Moxon's book, “Mechanick Exercises or the Doctrine of Handy-Works,” is the first English-language book on woodworking, even though the author was not actually a woodworker but a printer, a maker of mathematical instruments and (for a time) hydrographer to King Charles II. Rick’s company encourages young apprentices and keeps an active involvement in the Suffolk Historic Buildings Group.

Our March meeting featured experienced speaker and historian, Stephen Poulter, on "Suffolk's Lost Heritage". Like so many places in Britain, Suffolk has had its fair share of losses when it comes to the many historic buildings, grand mansions and medieval churches which have disappeared over past centuries. Stephen showed these vanished architectural gems using surviving period prints and the reports from travellers who visited the towns and villages during the past 400 years, either for personal curiosity or in the process of compiling guidebooks for the increasing number of tourists who had leisure time along with cheaper and faster methods of transport at their disposal.

EXHIBITION, "Rendlesham Revealed: The Heart of a Kingdom AD 400-800". If you missed this amazing exhibition at Sutton Hoo recently, more than 50 archaeological items found there are now on display at the West Stow Anglo-Saxon Village Museum (Icklingham Rd, IP28 6HG) until 23rd July. The finds include gold jewellery, coinage, and food remains, and the display focuses on the main story of royal Rendlesham at its height when it was the power centre of the early East Anglian kingdom 1,400 years ago. For more details, visit www.heritage.suffolk.gov.uk/rendlesham, or call 01284 728718.

Our next meeting on 11th April, 7.30pm at the Wesley (IP30 9EE), will see the welcome return of Jacquie Norman for her second talk on "Tudor Costumes" when, as previously, she will bring authentic replica costumes to illustrate her talk and show us how they were worn. Do join us then – everyone welcome.
